CPU performance may vary from specifications under certain conditions such as the use of battery instead of AC power, certain external peripherals, certain multimedia applications or network connections, complex modelling software and in areas with low air pressure at high altitude (1,000 metres above sea level) and certain temperatures. CPU performance may also vary from specifications due to design configuration. Under some conditions, your computer may automatically shut down as a protection measure. To avoid loss of data, please periodically back up data. For optimum performance, use your computer only under recommended conditions. Please read detailed notes in the product resource guide, visit the Toshiba website at computers.toshiba.co.uk and contact Toshiba Technical Support. For PC’s configured with 8 GB of system memory, the full system memory space for computing activities will be correspondingly less and will vary by model and system configuration. One GB means one billion bytes. Battery life may vary depending on applications, power management settings and features utilized. Recharge time varies depending on usage. Battery may not charge properly in extreme temperatures. Toshiba recommends using only Toshiba approved accessories. Always use genuine Toshiba device driver update software from the Toshiba website at computers.toshiba.co.uk or computers.toshiba.be. Small bright dots may appear on your TFT display when you turn on your PC. Your display contains an extremely large number of thin-film transistors (TFT) and is manufactured using high-precision technology. Any small bright dots that may appear on your display are an inherent characteristic of the TFT manufacturing technology.
